

Purse To Their Departing Rector

St. Patrick's Parish Presents Tribute of Appreciation to Rev. Hugh Treanor—The Largest Ever Given to a Priest in This Parish—Thomas H. Beckley Made Presentation—Reception at Residence of J. B. Shannon.

Taking advantage of the presence of Rev. Hugh Treanor in this city on Tuesday evening, the people of St. Patrick's parish, through their delegated committee, presented him a purse of gold as a mark of their appreciation of his services to the parish during the more than sixteen years while he was rector. The purse was probably the largest ever given to a priest in this parish, and represented the voluntary contributions of a host of the communicants who desired to make this testimonial of their regard as Father Treanor departs to take the pastorate at Sacred Heart church, Watbury, where he preached for the first time on Sunday in assuming his new appointment.

The committee from the parish met Father Treanor at the residence of J. B. Shannon, and presented with them were Rev. J. H. Broderick, who is Father Treanor's successor, and Rev. Thomas A. Grumbly, assistant rector at St. Patrick's church, the party numbering fifteen.

Delegated by the committee, Thomas H. Beckley made the presentation in the following words:

"To Rev. Hugh Treanor: It is beyond the power of your friends who compose St. Patrick's parish to give proper expression to their sense of loss which comes with your withdrawal from Norwich. Your many years of ceaseless and unselfish labor for those who were in your care drew all hearts to you in the warmest affection, while your life before this community, day after day and year after year, has been the beautiful example which does so much public good, while increasing constantly the reverence in which those of your parish delighted to hold you.

You may be assured of our gratitude for the efforts which had to be made by you to accomplish the wonderful results of your labor, which are known to all, and which have won the applause of all; so managing the affairs of the parish that the property stands free from debt, the beautiful church consecrated, and every other part of the property in perfect order, for the particular service to which it is devoted. We know that what is dearer to you than that consideration, however, is the spiritual gain which your labors have won for this parish; and in consequence we feel that it will be more easy to maintain our spiritual progress if through the years to come the people whom you are leaving will continue to be aided by your prayers.

Deeply affected by the gift and the expression of affection that accompanied it, Father Treanor was at first unable to reply, but he soon found words to acknowledge the gift in a feeling manner, and he also told of his pleasant experiences in Watbury.

The rest of the evening was spent by the party in a delightful social way as the guests of Mr. Shannon, who entertained them finely, a bountiful collation being served.

Father Treanor will return to Watbury this morning in a new automobile which he has purchased here.

TROLLEY TRACK WORK AT THE FALLS.

Sachem and Lafayette Street Curve Must Be Repaired to Correct Uneven Wear On Rails.

The Connecticut company will soon start work on the track at the corner of Sachem and Lafayette streets. The outside rail of the curve at this point is badly worn, due to unnecessary pressure of the car wheels as they pass over the track. To relieve the strain on the rail it will be necessary to take out the guard rail and lower it considerably. The tracks are also crooked a little above the corner and they will be straightened out at the same time. If the guard rail is not lowered the rail would soon be worn completely away and a new one would have to be laid. All the rails at this point have been laid recently.

Don't Be Fussy About Eating

Your Stomach Will Digest Any Kind of Food When Given the Proper Assistance.

We are prone to fall into the error of singling out some article of food and soundly berating the fiend who first invented the dish. The habit grows with some people till almost all food is put on the blacklist. This is all wrong. What is required is a little assistance with those agencies upon which scientific students for many years have set their seal of approval because they have become absolute facts. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for all stomach disorders are recognized; they have a fine record; they are rated reliable, dependable and worthy of confidence just as the president of a big bank puts his O. K. on a depositor's check. And so you can eat what you want, whenever you like, knowing well that should indigestion, sour risings, gas formations, fermentations or any other stomach distress arise, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in a few moments will put you right.

Coated tongue, bad breath, heartburn, belching, flatulency, bloating—all the symptoms of digestive troubles disappear quickly when these tablets are used. They are not a cure for anything but dyspepsia and kindred complaints. But they have brought relief to more sufferers from digestive diseases than all the patent medicines and doctor's prescriptions put together.

The stomach does the heaviest work of any of the bodily organs, yet it is the one we treat with the least regard. We eat too much of the wrong kind of food at any time. The patient stomach stands such treatment as long as it can and then it rebels. You get notice of the rebellion in the shape of the gases and pains caused by undigested, fermenting food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold and recommended by all druggists at 50c a box.

lenses enable him to see near and far with the same glasses.

During this month the Palmer system of writing has been introduced into the schools. This system of writing aims to give the child not only a free muscular movement of the arm but a control of that movement that will enable him to write a clear, legible hand with increased speed. A specimen copy of the handwriting of each pupil has been taken, and another will be taken in the latter part of the year to show what the system has done for the pupils.

WHITE CROSS ASSEMBLY. Annual Election and Banquet at Wauregan House.

The annual meeting with banquet of the White Cross Assembly, Knights of Columbus, was held here on Tuesday evening at the Wauregan house. The business meeting was held at 8.30 o'clock and these officers for the year were elected:

P. J. Morley, p. m.; W. P. McGarry, f. c.; Dr. T. A. Crowley, f. c.; O. Murphy, f. c.; J. P. Murtha, f. c.; Henry D. Buckley, f. c.

The business meeting was followed by a banquet at which covers for 24 were laid and the following menu was discussed, the tables being attractively decorated with flowers:

Oyster cocktail
Golden chicken
Bouillon in cups
Wafers
Celery
Salted nuts
Olives
Fillet of English Sole, favorite
Pommes chateaux
Fried spring chicken, Maryland
Flower in cream au gratin
Heart of lettuce, French dressing
Assorted French cream
Fancy cake
Demi-Tasse

P. J. Morley, f. c., was toastmaster, filling that position ably, and responses were made by Rev. U. O. Bellerose, of Baltic, Mayor T. C. Murphy, John M. Lee, master of the fourth degree for the District of Connecticut, and by others who entertained and held the close attention of their hearers.

BUSINESS AND REALTY.

Sales Here Were Smaller but Loans Showed an Increase.

There were in Norwich last week five sales of real estate against nine in the corresponding period last year. The mortgage loans, however, were $7,500 and $4,500 for the respective years.

The number of transfers of real estate for the week in the towns reported in The Commercial record is well ahead of last year's record, the figures being 385 and 256 for the two years respectively. At the same time the amount of mortgage loans increased from $758,863 in 1911 to $1,020,978 for the current week.

The five petitions in bankruptcy filed in the state during the week have average assets of $1,000 and average liabilities of $200. For the corresponding week of last year, while the number of bankrupts were the same, the assets averaged $2,000 and the liabilities something over $5,000.

Eight new incorporations are reported for the week with average capital of $11,500, against eleven last year, with $23,000 average. The record of building permits granted in the four larger cities of the state for the week shows a material lead over the like week of last year, the number of permits issued being 85 against 60 last year. The cost of the buildings for which permits were granted was $274,663, compared with $164,449 the previous year.

WEDDING.

Caron-Sabourin.

The wedding of John B. Caron and Miss Adella L. Sabourin, with many friends attending the ceremony, was solemnized on Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church. They were married by Rev. Frederick R. DesSautels of Occum. The bridesmaid was Miss Louise Sabourin, a sister of the bride, and the best man was Alime Gordon, an intimate friend of the groom.

Orlando P. L. Parrell played the Mendelssohn wedding march, also rendering O Promise Me, during the ceremony. An Ave Maria was beautifully sung by Mrs. F. L. Parrell. The bride was beautifully gowned in white charmeuse satin, carrying a white bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley and wearing a wreath of orange blossoms and a veil. The bridesmaid was gowned in yellow messaline with chiffon and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

A reception at the home of the bride at No. 24 River avenue followed the ceremony, and was attended by about fifty guests, including friends from Brooklyn and New York. A wedding breakfast was served. The wedding gifts were many and of great value, including cut glass, sterling silver, and china, and a handsome chair from the choir of St. Patrick's church, to which the bride has belonged for a number of years. The house was attractively decorated with palms and potted plants.

Mr. and Mrs. Caron left shortly after noon for a short wedding trip to New York and will reside upon their return with the bride's mother for a time. The bride's going away gown was a brown suit, with white plush hat.

Mr. Caron is a member of the firm of St. Onge, Caron & Co., and is also interested in business in Greenfield. He is a native of Canada, and has resided here for the past eight or nine years, having a wide acquaintance in the city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sophronia Sabourin. She has resided here the past 17 years and for some time has been employed by the Plaut-Cadden company. Among her many friends she is a general favorite.
